

MONICA DELANEY-TERAN

Senior Leader & Professional Coach

MEET Monica

A passionate servant leader supporting her professional community through motivational presentations based on her over 21 years of business sales experience. As a professional master coach and possessing over 15 years as a senior leader for small, mid, large business organizations, Monica navigates the intricacies of business environments and politics. She encountered strict social guardrails, where she trailblazed through her career by overcoming adversity, leveraging resilience, and grit. She strongly believes that through true authenticity, creative problem solving, embodying a growth mindset, and practicing strong communication skills, anyone can take their career and quality of life to the next phase.

“ Everyone holds the power within to achieve next level success ”
